

A Design Approach to Painting a Watercolor Abstract (2 days)

By Marlene Gremillion

This is a two day workshop where students will find an abstract composition in an image and translate it into a small collage using magazine pages and glue. Then the piece will be used as a thumb nail for a large full sheet watercolor painting. The challenge will be to paint in watercolor this abstracted thumb nail to look like the collage by utilizing the many watercolor techniques and possibly some mixed media.

