

Watercolor Portrait from Your Photo

By Marlene Gremillion

This 3-4 day workshop Students will use a limited pallet of watercolor and their own photo to paint a portrait. Value, color and shape are stressed to show the depth and detail of the face being painted. Glazing on color slowly to pull out the features of the portrait will be taught by demonstration. Students will work at an easel after the demonstration with the assistance of the instructor.

